

Getting to Lady Margaret Hall from Oxford City Centre Rail Station

Stagecoach Bus Route '14A to John Radcliffe Hospital' – from Bus Stop R2, 4 or 5

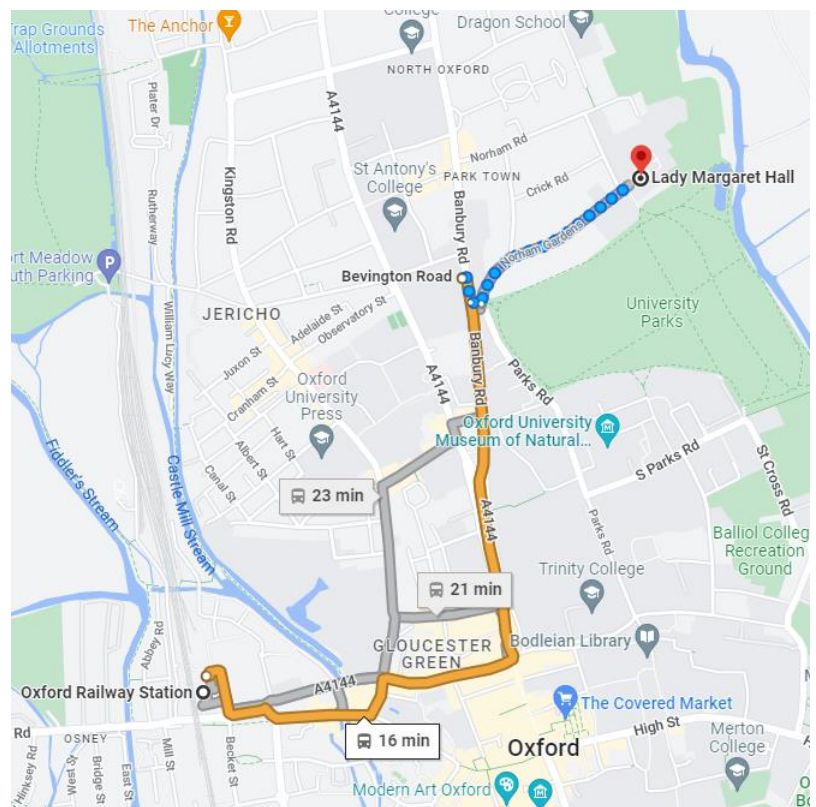

Take the Bus from Stop R4 at the Oxford Railway Station.

Alight at the Bevington Road Bus Stop, on the Banbury Road.

Cross over the Banbury Road and walk back down the road towards the junction where Parks Road joins the Banbury Road. Turn into Parks Road.

Turn almost immediately left into Norham Gardens. Lady Margaret Hall is at the end of this road.

The bus stop is a 5-minute walk from Lady Margaret Hall.

Getting to Lady Margaret Hall from the Oxford Bus Station, George Street

Stagecoach Bus Route '14A to John Radcliffe Hospital' – from Bus Stop B3.

Exit the Bus Station into George Street and locate Bus Stop B3.

Follow the instructions above, alighting at the at the Bevington Road Bus Stop, crossing over to Parks Road and turning left onto Norham Gardens.

Lady Margaret Hall is at the end of Norham Gardens.

Getting to Lady Margaret Hall from the Oxford Parkway Rail Station

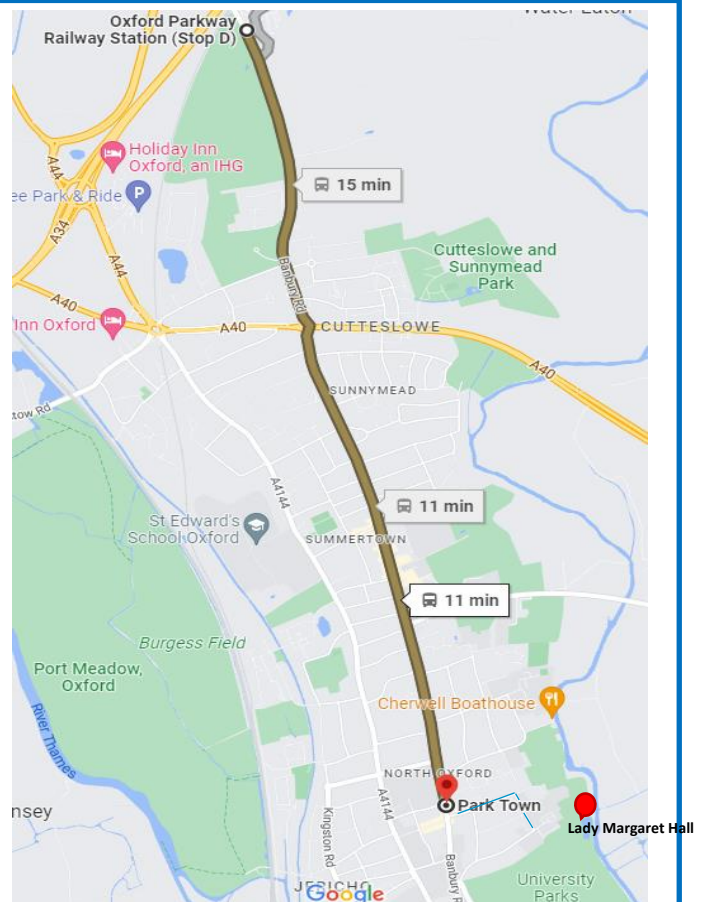

From Bus Stop Stand D – Bus Routes Stagecoach 2, S5 or 7 to Oxford City Centre

Alight at the Park Town stop on the Banbury Road.

Continue walking along the Banbury Road towards the city centre, and turn left at the Cotswold Lodge Hotel into Norham Road. Near the end of the Norham Road turn right into Fyfield Road.

Lady Margaret Hall is at the end of Fyfield Road, at the junction with Norham Gardens.

The walk from the bus stop to College is about 7 minutes.

Getting to Lady Margaret Hall by Taxi

Alternatively, there are taxis available. There is a taxi rank outside the Oxford City Centre Rail Station and one near Gloucester Green, just outside the Oxford Bus Station. Either journey to Lady Margaret Hall should cost around £10. When leaving college, a taxi can be arranged at the Porters' Lodge if you require one.

Lady Margaret Hall

Norham Gardens, Oxford, OX2 6QA

01865 274300